Capt. Dovener to Discuss the Issucs on the South Side

THE TARIFF AND SOUND MONEY

The Watchword of the Campaign-An Enthustastle Meeting Promised, and Every Patriot Should be Present-Other Political Notes of Interest-Hon. G. W. Atkinson at Cameron-An Immense Re publican Club Organized at Bellaire.

The meeting to be held by the Republicans on the South Side to-night will be one of the best of the campaign and unless all signs fail, and the weather is bad, the crowd that will listen to Capt. Dovener will number several thousand.

The speaking will take place from a stand erected by the Republicans of Webster district on Thirty-first street near Jacob, and will be of a most interesting nature. Capt. Dovener will discuss the issues of the campaign clearly and will not forget any of the burning questions. He will not do like the Popo-eratic speakers and candidates, dodge the tariff issue, but instead will tell why he believes in a sound tariff and a sound dollar.

Other prominent speakers will be on hand and one of the most enthusiastic meetings of the campaign may be looked for.

The Dovener Club of the Eighth ward will meet to their best of the campaign and the Eighth ward will meet to their best of the second of the Eighth ward.

The Dovener Club of the Eighth waru will meet in their hall at 7 o'clock and will go to the meeting in a body. The speaking will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Every citizen who is interested in the country's welfare should be present, at to-night's meeting. Let everybody turn out and make the rally a rousing one.

ATKINSON'S MEETING

At Cameron-Although the Notice of His Meeting was short, He was Greefed with a Large Crowd. Hon, George W. Atkinson, the next governor of West Virginia, spoke at Cameron yesterday. Notwithstanding the notice for the meeting had been very short, he faced the finest aud-In his masterful and eloquent style he held the strict attention of an audience of five hundred people for two hours. With figures and facts he riddled the With figures and facts he riddled the Chicago platform until it can never be patched up sufficient for any of Mr. Bryan's adherents to stand on. Taking up the history of silver he showed conclusively that the country has been practically on a gold basts since 1834, yet it had taken the Democrats sixty two years to find it out.

The mention of McKinley's name was greeted with hearty applause, and the free wool part of his speech and his eloquent appeal to duty and elifzenship sent a thrill through the whole audience, and when he intimated his conclusion he was urged to go on, so great was the enthusnam.

Old reliable Marshall will not be found wanting when the ballots are counted in November.

A ROUSING MEETING

Of Bellaire Republicans Held Last Even-Ing-Immense Audience Present.
A rousing meeting of Bellaire Republicans was held at the Rink last evenasts who favored sound money and William McKinley. A club was formed and over one thousand persons enrolled and over one thousand persons enrolled their names. It was one of the most im-portant political gatherings ever held in Bellaire, as it showed the temper of the people in regard to tryan and his repudiating Populist narry. Among the audience were steel, from and glass workers, and laboring men. Mr. James Wilson, ex-prosident of the Bellaire mill, made a speech of an hour and a half's length, which was cheered to the echo.

and a half's length, which was cheered to the echo.

A telegram was sent to Major McKinley informing him of the formation of the club, and also sending greetings.

A. C. Stewart was elected president, with vice presidents from each district.

A. J. Holt was chosen secretary, with Charles E. Dunlap assistant; trensurer, H. W. Burrows; executive committee, M. L. Biackford, Charles Kelser, W. C. Bergundthal, O. P. Mason, F. F. Mason, J. L. Foster.

Notwithstanding Capt. Dovener is to address the people this evening at Thiraddress the people this eventing at Thirty-first street, the "Tariff Champions" will meet early to-night to reorganize. In all probability the business will be gotten through with by 8:45 p. m., when the meeting can adjourn and in a body go to hear Capt. Dovener.

All voters are invited. Come give us encouragement and advice, even should you not want to join.

Old members are especially requested to be present. The meeting is to be held at Odd Fellows hall, corner Tweifth and Chapline streets.

and Chapline streets.

Bridgeport Republicans.

Last evening the Bridgepart Republican club held an enthusiastic meeting at the city hall, presided over by Mr. J. Ed Trueman. A number of the genthers of the club made speeches, and all gave cheering reports as to the outlook for the election of McKinley. It was gave enering reports as to the outlook for the election of McKinley. It was purely a business meeting of the organi-zation. The most gratifying occurrence of the evening was the addition to the roll, among the names being many sound money Democrats, who will not train with Bryan, Aligeld and Tillman. Somewhat of a Pizzle.

Somewhat of a Fizzle.

The Democrats, or rather the Popocrats, of Bridgeport, held a meeting at the West End school house last night which was attended by sixty persons, including the speaker. Mr. G. S. Mc-Fadden, of Steubenville, who is a candidate for Congress against Hon, Lorenzo Danford, talked, to the people present. There was a frost resting over the audience that even McFadden's oratory could not dissipate. The people of Ohio are not going that way this year.

Hold Attempt at Hobbery,

An attempt at Robbery.

An attempt was made to rob a man who was sleeping in a hack on Sixteenth sereet near Market at an early hour this morning, but the victim awoke just in time to save his watch and money from going. He described the thief to night-watchman McCann, who made a funt up through the all-y, and found a man answering the description sitting on the steps back of the Mutual Savings bank. He took him around to where the hack was standing, but the man falled to identify him, and he was released.

Marvelous Results.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible partoxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Logan Drug Co.'s Drug Store, Regular size 50c and $100.

IT WAS CHILLY

On the Camp Grounds Vesterday, but the Services were of an Interesting Charac-ter-Children's Services Conducted by Rey, Mr. Henthorne, of Ohto.

Tuesday night's services were in charge of Rev. N. D. Johnson, paster of North Street church, Wheeling. He preached from the words: "Quench not the Spirit." It was an earnest appeal for sinners to not trille with the wooings of the Holy Spirit, but to heed its leadings at all times and under all circumstances. The congregation was good, A prayer and praise meeting was conducted by Rev. Lakin after the sermon good. A prayer and praise meeting was conducted by Rev. Lakin after the sermon.

Yesterday morning was bright and fair, but uncomfortably cool until the warm rays of the sun warmed the atmosphere. It was a perfect day and the services throughout were very helpful. The early morning, service was well attended. Rev. Lynch talked from the text; "Wherefore Criest thou unto Me? Speak Unto the Children of Israel that they go Forward." The lesson drawn from this is that it is useless to cry unto God for, more power until we use what He has already given us. God will not help us until we help ourselves—until we do our level best. To obey is better than sacrifice, obedience is better than consecration. Brother Lynch spoke of the great revival in Juntington last winter. The ministers of all denominations met together and planned for the work. They visited every house, every shanty bout on the river and they found out who were Chilstians and who were not, and invited all to come to church, and multitudes came; and the result was over six hundred conversions. He susgested that the same plan be folowed on the camp ground, which will perhaps be done.

A consecration service was held after Brother Lynch's talk.

Rev. W. T. Helms, pastor of the Me-Mechen church, preached at the 11 o'clock service, taking for his text. "I am the resurrection and the life—he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live." We should first understand what the passage means, 75 do this we must study the raising of Luzarus. Just two miles east of Jerusalem was the home of the two sisters and one brother. The home under whose roof Jesus loved to stay. The belowed brother sickened and was nigh unto death, and then they sent for Jesus. They sent a mesenger, so anxious were they that Jesus should come. When he came Lazarus was dead, and was laki in the grave. Jesus had told the messenger that the sickness was not unto death. No won-for Jesus. They sent a mesenger, so anxious were they that Jesus should come. When he came Lazarus was dead, and was laid in the grave. Jesus had told the messenger that the sickness was not unto death. No wonder that the faith of the sisters may have been shaken, Burt Jesus spake and Lazarus came forth—showing that Christ is the resurrection and the life. One of the grandestlessons we can draw from this passage is how Jesus was misunderstood. He was found fault with no difference what he did. We find fault with him to-day. We do not place ourselves where he can use us. We must take him as he is, and believe that he can do all he promises to do and he will be sure to do it.

At the children's meeting Rev. C. R. Henthorne gave the children an object Jesson on the blackboard. His subject was Sariptural Addition. He first called their attention to the sign of adition, plus, and then he took up the christian graces, adding them together thus: Falth plus virtue, knowledge plus temperance, etc., explaining each as he went along in a manner to gether thus: Faith plus virtue, knowledge plus temperance, etc., explaining each as he went along in a manner to be understood by the smallest child in the audience. Mr. Henthorne possesses the gift possessed by very few, that of knowing how to interest children.

Mrs. Calvert spent the rest of the time asking questions, which were promptly answered by the children. All the children then went to the grassy slope just below the tabernale, where they had their pictures taken by Mr. A. J. Schutze, the Wheeling photographer, who has his tent pitched on the camp ground during the meeting. The ministers made a visit to every cottage ministers made a visit to every cot during the afternoon and doubtless attendance at the meetings hereafter will be greatly increased. The meetings are Increasing in power and in interest, and those attending are being greatly benefited. Some of the best preaching ever heard on the grounds has been done and still there is more to has need done and still there is more to follow.

The young people's meeting was conducted by 'Rev. H. Howden, of Palatine, who read a scripture lesson and gave an earnest talk, tilking for the foundation for his remarks the words; 'Therease our Faith.' It takes a great deal of faith to meet all the difficulties that beset us in our daily walk, and hence it behoves us to pray this prayer continually. We can thus receive that help we need to enable us to discharge our duties aright. We need faith for every hour, for every moment.

Quite a number of others took part in the exercises and the temple was well filled at this service.
